

Clients of a beauty center welcomed in baby doll

After some reports made by residents of the neighborhood to the Romanina commissariat, on a strange case of men at a beauty center, the investigators of the State Police made an appointment.

So they could notice a man ring the bell: when the door opened, a Chinese girl dressed only in a baby doll. After a few minutes, the police officers in borghese made their turn to ring the bell and were welcomed in the same way: once they entered, they were qualified and, by searching the rooms, they found men in unequivocal arrangements with Chinese women, as well as numerous boxes of condoms and pills to favor sexual activity.

C.X., 42-year-old of the same nationality, had the keys of an apartment inside of which the agents found the same scenario of prostitution: the woman, organizer of the illicit activity of prostitution, was denounced for favoring prostitution and the clandestinity of her compatriots on the national territory.

Read More